

A Hacedor delivers refreshing and enlightening Guayaki brand Yerba Mate (“Yerba Mate”) while perfecting the art of servicing and retaining customers and increasing the presence of The Yerba Mate Co.

Our aspiration is to deliver this amazing product by way of a fossil fuel free fleet of vehicles and trikes. We are looking for people who love to work hard, connect with the community, and are passionate about something...anything.

We’re currently on the quest to find Hacedors all over the United States and Canada.

Hacedors are responsible for managing full distribution of the product line in the assigned area. This includes product education, inventory management, delivery, warehousing, recruiting, and service of our clients. We’re excited to bring our products to new markets as well as growing in our existing markets and we are looking for yerba mate-loving likeminded people to join us in building a stellar distribution operation.

Hacedor Qualifications: Strong organizational skills; able to manage priorities and workflow with enthusiasm. Must demonstrate a good attitude, be a team player, able to lift and/or move heavy weight every day, and be insurable to drive our company vehicles.

Please submit your resume by emailing: recruitment@theyerbamateco.com

Please include the city where you are located in the subject of the email. If you fit our team needs, you’ll hear from us shortly. Hacedor positions offer full-time employment.
